

A big city lawyer shot a duck while hunting in rural Texas but it fell into a farmer's field. As the lawyer climbed over the fence to retrieve his duck, an elderly farmer drove up on his tractor and informed him that it was private property and that the duck was now his. The indignant lawyer responded, "I am the best trial attorney in the U.S. and if you don't let me get that duck, I'll sue and take everything you own." The old farmer smiled, "We settle small disagreements like this with the Texas 3 Kick Rule." The lawyer was puzzled, "What's that?" The Farmer replied, "Well, first I kick you 3 times, then you kick me 3 times, and so on until someone gives up." The attorney agreed knowing he could easily take the old codger. So the old farmer climbed down from his tractor and planted his 1st kick into the lawyer's groin. His 2nd kick nearly ripped his nose off and the 3rd broke a rib. The lawyer managed to get to his feet and said, "Okay, you old coot now it's my turn." The old farmer grinned, "Naw, I give up. You can have the duck!"

SHOOT OUT: A Great Stress Relief

As a man, life is undoubtedly kicking your butt somewhere! Kicked by the economy; hammered by work; slapped around by stress; stomped by the demands of life. We understand. So, we offer you fun, temporary relief from the pressures of life by shooting and blowing things up! That's right, we plan to take 24 men shootin' and plinkin' just to relieve a little stress and recalibrate our aim in life. On 400 acres of gorgeous private property only 10 minutes from the 20-26 interchange, we plan to have a safe and serious time shooting bottles, cans and various targets using a variety of caliber handguns (22, 25, 38, 357, 9 mil, 40, 45). At the end 3 men will bring their AR 15s for those who would like to try your sniper skills downrange. You don't have to own a gun or shoot well. But you do have to be stressed somewhere in life and be willing to blow things up in order to have a good time! And sometime during the shooting we will pause for a few strategic minutes to consider our aim in life from God's perspective.

Thursday, May 25. 6:00-8:00 pm

"Palmetto Roost" 8221 Monticello Rd. @ 3 miles past Columbia Int'l University.
1st driveway on the left after Monticello narrows to 2 lanes at the black/white 'PASCO' sign.

TAKING AIM: Here's The Plan

We'll meet at the beautiful, secluded property on the Broad River called "The Roost" (home of Scott Mill) at 6:00 sharp and shoot for about 2 hours in a friendly competition. After the smoke has cleared, the testosterone has settled and the final target destroyed, we'll all head to The Roost for heavy snacks and refreshments along with a little trash talkin' and braggin' rights! It's going to be a blast! You do NOT have to know how to shoot or own a gun to take part!

-  Ear protection (mandatory). We will have ear plugs available if you forget.
-  Eye protection (mandatory!) Glasses/goggles $2.50 if you forget.
-  Cost is $20.00 to defray the cost of the ammunition and snacks.
-  Please bring your hand gun and ammo. Guns provided and shared for those who do not have their own.
-  Wear long pants as we will be in fields and woods. There will be a place to change if you bring extra clothes.
-  Must be 21 to shoot.
-  To reserve your spot contact David Andes (665-6751. david@focusedliving.com). We will be taking the first 12 teams of two (24 men max) who sign up.