Before we study the 10 commandments let's stop to make sure that we have the basics. Get into your TAG teams and prepare to "cheat" with open books, open bibles and open hearts in order to reinforce the basic truths we have discovered together over the past 2 weeks. The answer for each question has been mentioned multiple times during the Men's Forum in the past several weeks and you should have no problem coming up with the right answers together as a TAG team. Enjoy!

1. T / F The Law is an extension of God's character.
2. T / F The Old Testament is about God's Law and the New Testament is about God's grace.
3. T / F Jesus replaced the Law with grace at the cross.
4. T / F Rightly understood, the Law is designed to drive us back to God's grace to show us our desperate need for a Savior.
5. T / F The first 4 commands speak to our relationship with God. Name them...in order.
6. T / F The last 6 commands speak to our relationship with man. Name them.
7. Which aspect of God's character is most important, His 'PURR' or His 'ROAR'?
8. T / F God doesn't really care how we enter His presence as long as we enter His presence.
9. 2 Sentence Essay: What is the verse on the back of the 'glove' and what does it have to do with the 10 commandments?
10. The one man in my TAG team whom I most need to reach out to is _____!
